Closely aligned to the continuously evolving Library Science field, this interdisciplinary and outward-looking collection features research that intersects with information systems, information science and education.

Committed to the industry it serves, selected articles are published in partnership with The International Federation of Library Associations and Institutions (IFLA), and under an arrangement with the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation’s Global Libraries Initiative.

94% of titles are ranked by Scopus and six titles are accepted in the Journal Citation Reports® including Journal of Documentation, which is one the longest-established journals in library and information science with content dating back to the 1940s.

“Emerald’s library and information science journals balance practice and innovation, ideas for today with research for tomorrow. Together they form a corpus that educates both the active professional and the student. Directors and beginners benefit equally from the international coverage and technology depth.”

Michael Seadle, Institute for Library and Information Sciences, Humboldt University of Berlin, Germany

About Emerald Publishing

Emerald Publishing was founded in 1967 to champion new ideas that would advance the research and practice of business and management. Today, we continue to nurture fresh thinking in applied fields where we feel we can make a real difference, now also including health and social care, education and engineering.

We publish over 300 journals, more than 2,500 books and over 1,500 case studies. Our priority is to build long-term relationships with a global community of authors, teachers and librarians who want to find, share and apply research that matters.
