The Tourism & Hospitality Management eBook collection features a range of notable, well established titles for scholars, academics, researchers and professionals. Key topics covered within the collection include, tourism branding, policy and governance, destination management, social media and global issues and trends.

Key Titles

Advances in Culture, Tourism and Hospitality Research

The series aims to be eclectic in providing both in-depth and holistic examinations of antecedents, process transformations, and immediate and long-range outcomes of contexts, thoughts, actions, behaviors, and interpretations relating to tourism and hospitality topics. Renowned editor Arch G. Woodside, is the founder of the International Academy of Culture, Tourism, and Hospitality Research and Fellow of the International Academy for the Study of Tourism.

Advances in Hospitality and Leisure

This series delivers insights from a host of scientific investigations pertaining to hospitality, leisure, & tourism while rendering an academic forum to stimulate discussion on literature, contemporary issues & various trends essential to theory advancement as well as professional practices from a global perspective.

Advances in Hospitality and Leisure is the most popular series in the Tourism & Hospitality Management eBook Collection, with over 50,000 downloads since 2012.

Bridging Tourism Theory and Practice

The series creates a platform for academics and practitioners to share theories and practices with each other, and serves as a collaborative venue for meaningful exchange and syntheses. Co-editor Jafar Jafari has made immense contributions to tourism studies through his research and editorship of various academic publications and is the recipient of the 2005 United Nations World Tourism Organization Ulysses Award. Co-editor, Liping A. Cai, is an industry expert and Professor of Hospitality and Tourism Management.
