Sociology eBook Collection

The Sociology eBook Collection contains contributions from leading worldwide institutions, including Harvard University (USA), University of Oxford (UK) and New York University (USA). The collection covers major topics across the Sociology discipline, with contributions from recognised and influential authors in the field.

Key Titles

Advances in Gender Research

Series editors: Professor Vasilikie Demos and Professor Marcia Segal

The series encourages and engages with empirical and theoretical gender scholarship worldwide. It furthers the understanding of gender and promotes the application of this understanding to the solution of social problems and the achievement of equality locally and globally.

It includes contributions from influential authors such as the Professors Sylvia Walby, OBE, Michael S Kimmel, Marianne Hester, OBE, and Raewyn Connell.

Comparative Social Research

Series editor: Dr Fredrik Engelstad

This series aims to correct the bias of social science to focus on the national by forefronting comparative perspectives. The series covers a broad range of topics such as education, family policy, regional culture, labour mobility, political and social elites, and civil society.

Leading names that have published in this series include, the Professors Baroness Ruth Lister, Craig Calhoun, Gosta Esping-Anderson, Adrian Favell, Hans-Peter Blossfeld, Trudie Knjin and Karin Gottschall.

Studies in Symbolic Interaction

Series editor, Norman K. Denzin, is Distinguished Professor of Communications at the University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign (USA) and is one of the founders of the field of symbolic interactionism. This long-standing ISI-listed series, now in its 44th year, publishes widely on symbolic interactionist approaches and perspectives.

"Studies in Symbolic Interaction provides the community of symbolic interaction scholars with extended essays on key methodological and theoretical issues. I have benefitted from publishing and reading colleagues' work in this creative series."

David Altheide - Emeritus Regents' Professor, Arizona State University, USA

1991 - 2015
