Rigorous: We publish 350 new titles annually with a backlist dating from 1992 covering a spectrum of cutting-edge subject areas.

Global: We have true global representation across our author community; supported by diverse editorial boards who facilitate comprehensive, rigorous and impactful research. Over 60% of usage stemmed from beyond Europe and North America in 2023.

Sought-after: Prestigious institutions across the globe subscribe to Emerald content contributing to over 1.7 million book chapter downloads in 2023.

Influential: Our books are a must-have resource offering real-world application to global issues - usage has been growing by over 10% annually.

Change-focused: Focused on delivering impact to society. Children and the Climate Migration Crisis - authored by Rose Cardarelli, Ed.D., Founder & CEO of Education for All Coalition - addresses the urgent need to support children facing the challenges of climate-induced displacement, helping them to foster resilience and adaptability in a changing world.

Who are we?

Championing fresh thinking has been at the heart of Emerald Publishing since foundation over 50 years ago. Our goal is to help those in academia to deliver positive change in the real world through evidence-led research. Through publishing inter-disciplinary and global research we support academics to create something powerful and influence society for the better.

Our commitment to positive change:

Diverse Voices

We firmly believe that research is most impactful when diverse voices are included. We are proud to have been selected by The Times as one of the Top 50 Employers for Gender Equity.

Research Impact and Impact literacy

As an early DORA signatory, and a supporter of The Hidden REF, we are committed to enabling healthy impact culture and equitable research assessment.

Acting ethically and responsibly

We were a founding signatory of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (UN SDGs) Publishers Compact. More than 60% of our journals and 90% of our books are mapped to at least one SDG. We are committed to sustainable publishing and a proud signatory of Publishing Declares, the Publishers Association's climate action pledge.

Supporting all forms of open research

We have developed a robust open access books and journals programme, and are one of only a handful of publishers to offer green open access without an embargo period, with a diamond open access portfolio approaching 80 journals.
