

eBooks 2024

Emerald's eBooks collection offers more than 3,800 titles, comprising impactful monographs, thought provoking book series, and exceptional handbooks. Partnering with a community of expert authors and editors from top global institutions, our books are a must-have resource. They cover some of the world's most significant issues such as climate change, healthcare, as well as traditional business management and social sciences topics. The content challenges viewpoints, develops professional skills and brings positive change to society.

Rigorous: Our books programme offers more than 350 new titles annually with a backlist dating from 1992, covering a spectrum of cutting-edge subject areas, aligned with the UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

Fact: In 2023 we acquired the ICE Publishing book collection with over 1,500 titles on civil engineering, aligning with our commitment to the UN's SDGs on sustainable structures and infrastructures.

Global: We are proud that our eBooks programme represents diverse viewpoints and amplifies international research.

Fact: In 2022, authors from 101 different countries published books with Emerald and 60% of online usage of Emerald books stemmed from outside Europe and North America.

Change-focused: Emerald is committed to publishing books and authors that deliver real world impact to society.

Fact: Nicola Sharp-Jeffs OBE, Author of 'Understanding and Responding to Economic Abuse', is founder and CEO of Surviving Economic Abuse (SEA), a charity dedicated to supporting women facing economic abuse. Her book calls for the involvement of 'non-traditional' stakeholders such as money/debt advice organisations and the financial services sector to better support victims.

Sought after: Prestigious institutions and organisations around the world purchase Emerald eBooks, delivering unrestricted access to thousands of researchers. In 2022, there were more than 1.5 million Emerald book chapters downloaded.

Fact: 'Quantum Governance: Rewiring the Foundation of Public Policy' is co-authored by Sir Christopher A Pissarides who was awarded the Nobel Prize in Economics in 2010.

Influential: We are committed to publishing books which cover the latest emerging trends in research and society and which offer real-world application to global issues – content coverage expanded to social media, gender, mental health and dark tourism.

Fact: In 2023, Emerald was highly commended in the 2023 Alison Morrison Diversity and Inclusivity Award, part of the Independent Publishing Awards.

Our commitment to positive change:

Diverse Voices

Highlight: We represent authors and editors from more than 140 countries, and we firmly believe that research is most impactful when diverse voices are included.

Research Impact and Impact literacy

Highlight: In 2021 we launched Impact Services, enabling researchers and institutions to plan, monitor and evaluate the impact of their research and build healthy impact culture. We are also a signatory of DORA; and help steer The Hidden REF, to influence research culture and drive more equitable research assessment.

Acting ethically and responsibly

Highlight: We were a founding signatory of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (UN SDGs) Publishers Compact. More than 90% of our frontlist books are mapped to at least one SDG.

Supporting all forms of open research

Highlight: At Emerald Publishing, our aim is to help researchers make their findings open to all, giving them the opportunity to create real impact and drive positive change across the world. We have developed a robust Open Access books publishing programme, with routes for chapters and books to be open.
